4 ACTION ITEMS/BUSINESS ARISING

Nil.

5 GENERAL BUSINESS

➤ Season 11/12 program

Amended to reflect Black Dragons organising Torrens 20s on 23 October and Adelaide Survivors Abreast organising the Around the Island race on 26 November 2011

➤ Race day – 25/09/11

Sean Carey advised that he would circulate the amended race program to reflect the correct lane allocation from race 15 onwards.

Pleasing to note that 50 crews have entered in comparison to 40 for the same event in 2010 with a total of 42 races scheduled at Pinky Flat. Clubs reminded to undertake DBSA tasks first prior to setting up on tents.

Sea Rescue is no longer providing their services due to purchase of a larger boat and Canoe SA have loaned their tinnie to be driven by Steve Clinch as Course Umpire.

All boats on the Torrens will now be of the same kind with the pink boat being returned to the Port. MGA Insurance has taken up 5-year sponsorship offer and will have their name painted on one of the boats on the Torrens.

Task list to be sent out early next week along with map of venue.

6 ANY OTHER BUSINESS

- Clubs reminded to clean up and return trophies from previous season.
- Ronnie Lane advised that Subsonix are inviting Junior paddlers from other clubs to participate with their juniors in a composite team which was welcomed by clubs.
- John Holland advised that Karen Graetz had been appointed as the Junior Development Officer and was tasked to coordinate a school competition for early in 2012. Progress was positive thus far.
- Question asked if race team entry could be modified to allow for 2 x volunteers to be listed. John Holland advised any club with volunteers not paddling should register them with Rick French so they could be recorded under the Volunteer program.
